BORAH OPPOSES
M'CORMICK PLAN
IN THE SENATE

Holds Abolition of Seniority Rule Would Injure Progressives

START ORGANIZING

Senate Farm Bloc Will Pass Out of Existence if It Is Intimated.

Washington, Nov. 14.—Independent or progressive senators chosen at last Tuesday's election are said to be organizing for the purpose of holding the balance of power in the new senate.

It is expected there will be at least 16 or 17 senators in the new group. Senator Borah arrived in the city and began to take an interest in the work of getting the progressives together. While Borah does not assume to be the leader of the independent group, it is conceded that his experience in the senate will be of considerable value to the organizers when they get ready to combine forces.

Senator Borah announced, as a first step in the direction of a solid progressive front in the next senate, that the progressives will have nothing to do with the proposal made by Senator Medill McCormick in his letter to Senator Lodge, for abolition of the seniority rule in the selection of committee chairmanships.

The progressives now in the senate have most to gain by the continuance of the seniority rule, the senator pointed out, because LaFollette is the ranking Republican on the finance committee, and Borah is the ranking Republican on the foreign relations committee.

Representative Longworth of Ohio appeared to be out of the running for Republican leader of the house in the Sixty-eighth congress. Inquiries directed in authoritative quarters elicited the frank admission that the progressives and farm bloc members will not accept him.

The name of Representative William J. Graham of Illinois is being thrown out by the farm bloc Republicans as a feeler. If he can develop sufficient support, the farm bloc and progressives may unite behind him. Any aspirant with this joint support probably would get the post.

It was intimated that in the senate the farm bloc will pass out of existence and will be replaced by the new organization of independents. Most of the independents are from agricultural states anyway.

MORE WINNERS OF
PRIZES ANNOUNCED

Four more prize winners, children over the county who were the fortunate finders of the slips dropped from the aeroplane which flew over Greene County Saturday, in connection with the Sixth Annual Red Cross Roll Call Drive, was announced by Red Cross Headquarters Tuesday.

They were Robert Smith, Cedarville, Gloves, donated by McDorman and Humphrey, Green Femuels, Xenia, candy, donated by the Xenia Candy Kitchen, Carrie Allen, Xenia, doll, donated by Boring Book Store, and William Groves of Yellow Springs, fancy pencil, donated by the L. S. Barnes Store.

The distribution of the slips to the prize winners over the county is pleasing to Red Cross officials.

FAIRBANKS COMPANY IS SCENE OF COSTLY FIRE

Springfield, O., Nov. 14.—Damage to the extent of $50,000 resulted at the piano plate factory of the Fairbanks company by fire. The south wing of the factory, used as a pattern shop, office and stock room, was completely destroyed.

WAGE INCREASE GRANTED

Youngstown, O., Nov. 14.—Sheet workers employed under the sliding scale negotiated by the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers will receive a wage increase of 4 1/2 per cent for the next two months, as a result of the bi-monthly settlement made here by representatives of the manufacturers and of the union.

CHILD IS KILLED

Cleveland, Nov. 14.—Knocked under a streetcar she was about to board by a speeding auto, which did not stop, Agnes Zonka, 6, was killed when the car passed over her body. Her father, Adam, 41, standing with her, also was hit by the auto, and thrown 10 feet in front of the streetcar. The streetcar stopped before it reached him. He was painfully injured.

APPOINT RECEIVER FOR U-SAVE-IT FIRM

James W. Rice, of Dayton, was appointed receiver for the U-Save-It Stores Company, which operates a branch store in this city, by Common Pleas Judge Patterson in Dayton Monday.

The appointment is the result of the suit filed recently by Clifford B. Krumler. The appointment was made at the same time that S. G. Kusworm and H. A. Estabrook were appointed counsel for the receiver and H. E. Allen and C. W. Dale counsel for the purpose of bringing further action against any officer of the company if such action is deemed necessary.

Kusworm is attorney for Herbert Harris and Estabrook is attorney for Krumler. In his suit Krumler charged that Harris, president of the company, violated the blue sky law and charged as high $1,500 for a $100 par value share of stock.

CHARGES MOB RULE GOVERNED
AMERICAN LEGION CONVENTION

Gros, commander of the department of continental Europe of the American Legion, who has just arrived home from New Orleans, where he attended the Leg-on convention, had words of harsh criticism today for both the Legion and American prohibition.

In a report to the Paris Post of the American Legion, Dr. Gros said: "The American Legion is dying. Mob rule governs the national convention."

"The New Orleans streets were under mob rule during the convention, there. Shop windows were broken, furniture and bedding were thrown from the hotel windows into the streets and drunkenness was prevalent. Whiskey seemed easy to procure."

Turkish Diplomacy Seeks To Involve Europe In War

Lausanne, Switz., Nov. 14.—Despite the Turk's protestations of peace, Turkish diplomacy, notorious for its cunning and insidiousness, is at work today to split the allies and perhaps launch Europe in another great war. England and France are at loggerheads over the course to be pursued at the Near East peace conference when it convenes here. They have not been able to agree upon a program nor even the date of the parity.

Lord Curzon wants a preliminary meeting held in London to arrange the details. Premier Poincare of France will not go to London. General Sir Charles Harrington, British commander at Constantinople, wants to proclaim martial law at once. He is opposed by General Pelle, French high commissioner, who is supported by the Italians.

The dissensions between the allied governments have fostered a spirit of arrogant aggressiveness among the Turkish nationalist leaders, especially the extremists in the Angora assembly.

With the wily diplomacy for which they have long been noted the Turkish peace delegates in Switzerland are proclaiming pacific intentions.

"Turkey is a democracy and it is striving for peace," declared Ismet Pasha, head of the Turkish delegation. "Our only claim is that Turkey be recognized as an independent nation on the same equality as other nations. Turkey in the future will not be ruled by a religious head. The caliphate will be of purely religious character. Turkey will be ruled by the head of the democratic govern-

Turks Not Likely to Make Further Aggressive Moves for Present

PRICES ARE HIGH
Allies May Find it Expedient to Evacuate City Before Peace Here.

Constantinople, Nov. 14.—In allied circles it is said that sober reflection by the Turks caused them to decide to make no further provocative gestures before the opening of the Lausanne conference.

Thus, while the situation continued uncertain, it was felt that the peril of a rupture was momentarily averted.

The departure for London of Colonel Gribben, British chief of staff, and the decision of Sir Horace Rumbold, the British high commissioner, to leave tomorrow for Lausanne, was interpreted as indicating an improvement in the situation. Nevertheless, a persistent impression prevailed in some quarters that the allies may find it expedient to evacuate the capital before peace is concluded.

It was learned that the allied officials are considering the question of waiving passport visas for Greeks, Armenians and others who desire to leave the city immediately. This expeditious movement of population would lessen allied responsibility when the actual transfer of Constantinople to Kemalists takes place.

The economic situation is reported worse; prices of foodstuffs soared; business houses continued to suspend, their owners departing. Owing to the unwillingness of merchants to impart further merchandise, supplies were said to be running short; there is only 20 days' supply of the principal foodstuffs. The Greek and Armenian employees of American firms are leaving their posts, seriously hampering operations, and thousands of depositors are withdrawing their funds from the banks, fearing seizure by the Kemalists.

GERMANY SEEKING TO MAINTAIN MARK

Paris, Nov. 14.—The German government forwarded a formal note to the reparations commission informing the commission that the Reich bank is prepared to advance the German government 500,000,000 gold marks, provided an equal amount is forthcoming from abroad and subject to the conditions proposed by the foreign financial experts who recently visited Berlin as essential for the success of the stabilization project.

A deadlock in the commission again seemed imminent. Although it was reliably reported that M. Barthou, the chairman, was favorably impressed with the proposed solution contained in the report of the foreign experts who recently went to Berlin to study the situation, it was said that Premier Poincare insists upon the imposition upon Germany of rigid guarantees before anything else.

The statements seem to be somewhat extravagant," the Legion Commander said. "You will notice that he does not say that he saw the things that are alleged to have happened."

CHANGE TO AID BLIND
OFFERED TO THE STATE

Columbus, Nov. 14.—An appeal has been issued by the state commission for the blind asking support of housekeepers of Ohio in order to keep several hundred blind women employed, by purchasing tea towels, aprons and other articles which are made by the blind in their own homes. The appeal says that the commission now has a surplus of more than 70,000 tea towels on hand as well as a large stock of gingham and percale aprons, and it is necessary that this stock be converted into cash in order to provide more material.

The Turkish leader said he was anxious for the United States to play an active part in the Near East peace conference. He said the Turks had confidence in the justice of Americans. The Turks expressed deep anger over the refusal of the allies to allow Russia to have a full part in the parity.

Clark of Canton relinquishes his appointive position on the supreme court bench, Dec. 30, he may be appointed by Governor Davis to the vacancy on the Stark county common pleas bench, which will be created by Judge Robert H. Day's elevation to the supreme court. It would be a trading of judgeships. Judge Day's term on the common pleas bench runs until April, 1923.

EXPECT DEATHS
IN EARTHQUAKE
NEARLY 2,000

Chilean Cities Are Scenes of Horror After Tidal Wave.

Buenos Aires, Nov. 14.—Deaths from earthquake and tidal wave in Northern Chile probably will exceed 2,000, it was indicated today by late reports from the scene of the calamity.

The Chilean government has divided the relief work into different sections. While workmen and soldiers are employed removing the wreckage of shattered towns and searching for bodies, others are carrying relief to the thousands of homeless and still others are working to restore rail and telegraphic communication with the devastated zones.

Vallenar and Huasco, 275 miles north of Valparaiso are scenes of devastation and horror. Nearly all the buildings were shaken down by the quake causing heavy loss of life as the people were caught sleeping.

Naval craft have been rushed to that zone with supplies for the survivors.

DIRTY OLD CALENDAR TAKES ITS PLACE IN NEW JERSEY MYSTERY

New Brunswick, N. J., Nov. 14.—A dirty old calendar in the home of Mrs. Jane Gibson, self claimed eye witness of the murder of Rev. Dr. Edward W. Hall, rector of the Protestant Episcopal Church of St. John the Evangelist, and the choir singer, Mrs. James Mills, will play an important part in establishing the truth of Mrs. Gibson's story when the Somerset county grand jury takes up the case.

Postponement of the hearing of the Hall-Mills case by the grand jury from Thursday to next Monday was made necessary by the swearing in of a new sheriff of Somerset County today.

The calendar in the case is in the home of Mrs. Nellie Russell, the Negro witness story, was wrong about the date of the night on which Mrs. Gibson called at the Russell home.

Mrs. Russell, in an affidavit, claimed that Mrs. Gibson called at her home on the night of Sept. 14, the night of the double murder—and consequently could not have been upon the Phillips farm where the crime was committed.

When authorities asked Mrs. Gibson about the claims of Mrs. Russell, Mrs. Gibson admitted that she had gone to Mrs. Russell's home to tell her about the theft and recovery of her dog, but that it took place on the night of Sept. 9 not the 14th.

To prove her story Mrs. Gibson produced her calendar upon which she marks down all business transactions and other matters she deems of importance.

On the calendar under date of Sept. 9 was a notation in Mrs. Gibson's own handwriting saying that she had called upon her neighbor, Mrs. Russell, to ask her advice about the stolen dog.

The writing was studied under a microscope and was found to be old and covered over with fly specks, showing that it had been made sometime ago and before cold weather put an end to the fly nuisance.

Loot of Between $35,000 and $40,000 Saved When Robbers Get Wrong Train

OTHER TRAIN MET

Force Mail Truck Driver to Hand Over Pouch They Believed Valuable

Cartersville, Ills., Nov. 14.—Two unmasked bandits who held up and robbed a rural route mail carrier here early today missed by a few hours a mine payroll of between $35,000 and $40,000, it was disclosed by officials of the coal company, following the theft.

The payroll belonging to the Madison Coal corporation No. 9, near here, is due to arrive in Cartersville on the noon train. The bandits evidently misinformed as to the time of its arrival, met the train arriving at 7:20 o'clock this morning and forced Herbert Rush, the mail truck driver, to deliver them a pouch which they believed contained the payroll.

Marion, Ills., Nov. 14.—A payroll of the mines near Cartersville, believed to be about $40,000, was stolen by two men in an automobile who held up a mail carrier on the rural route early today.

Two self-styled "hard boiled lawyers," of Kansas City, were so overcome by the beauty of the soprano voice of fifteen-year-old Marion Talley daughter of a Missouri Railway telegraph operator, that they had a public concert, in which she sang and in which $15,000 was raised to further her musical education. Rather than expend the money foolishly, they took her to New York, where Maestra Gullio Gatti-Casazza, of the Metropolitan Opera Co., declared her the "find" of years. She will study abroad.

NEGRO PREACHER ARRESTED

Youngstown, O., Nov. 14.—Rev. S. C. Walker, pastor of the Missionary Tabernacle, a negro church in Akron, is in the county jail here charged with possessing liquor. When he and his automobile were seized at Berlin Center after several bottles of raisin jack were found in the car, Rev. Mr. Walker told police that he had bought the liquor here because he had a bad cold.

INVALID TAKES POISON

CONSTANTINE WILL NEVER SEEK RETURN TO GREEK THRONE

Former King Says He is Done With Politics—to Live in Retirement

Palermo, Italy, Nov. 14.—Constantine, former king of Greece and an exile from his native land, has retired from active politics for life and never again will seek to return to the Hellenic throne, no matter how loudly the people may call for him, he revealed today in the first interview he has given out since his abdication.

Asked if he would return to Athens to stand trial before a revolutionary tribunal on the charge of being responsible for the Greek military collapse in Asia Minor, Constantine replied: "It is all nonsense about my returning to Athens. I am not going back to stand trial. It is equal nonsense about my going to Doorn to live near my brother-in-law, the former German kaiser. I am in complete retirement. Never again will I become involved in politics. I have no plan for the future except to lead a quiet, isolated life. I will remain at Villa Igea in Palermo for the time being."

If the monarchists in Greece are active in behalf of "Tino" as Constantine is frequently called, the former king knows nothing of it. He will have nothing to do with Greek affairs, will not even discuss them. There are no couriers from Athens visiting him. Occasionally a personal friend drops in but not to talk politics. That subject is barred.

OHIO DEMOCRATIC CLUB IS FORMED

Columbus, Nov. 14.—Incorporation papers were filed for an Ohio Democratic club, a statewide organization, which is to have headquarters here. It will occupy a whole floor of the new Neil house, to be erected next year.

Two former governors, a governor-elect, a former chief justice and two former attorneys general are on the list of incorporators. They are: Former Governors James M. Cox and James E. Campbell, former Chief Justice Hugh L. Nichols, Claude L. Meeker, former Attorney General Timothy S. Hogan and Joseph McGhee and Governor-elect A. V. Donahey.

Democrats have long discussed a club of this kind, where members of the party from all parts of the state might congregate upon their visits to Columbus.

Life memberships are to be offered to all those who are interested in the organization and associate memberships may be taken by those who prefer paying smaller initiation fee with annual dues. Life members are not subject to dues.

NAVY FIGHT IS
IN COMMITTEE

Battle Between "Big" and "Little" Factions Gets Under Way in Capital

HARDING TO GET IN

Ex-president to Take Hand In Argument Over Size of Naval Fleet.

Washington, Nov. 14.—The "big" and "little" navy fight in Congress opened today in the House appropriations committee when a start was made on the navy supply bill for the fiscal year, 1923-24 beginning next July.

Representative Kelly, Republican of Michigan, chairman of the naval appropriations committee is a "little navy" man and he will dominate his committee in holding down appropriation for the navy.

Secretary Denby and the naval experts are arrayed against Kelly, and are prepared to stage a vigorous fight in the general appropriations committee for money to sustain a navy as large as allowed by the armament limitation conference agreement. Kelly is backed to win in the committee fight and the contest will have to be carried to the floor of the house.

President Harding is expected ultimately to take a hand in the navy dispute as he did last spring, and throw his influence behind the advocates of a "big" navy. In the last fight the "little" navy men were determined to cut the navy to a maximum strength of 75,000 although their first proposal was for a navy of 67,000 men. Secretary Denby demanded 96,000 men as the least on which the navy could be maintained at the standard authorized by the armament limitation conference.

With the little navy men about to win the conflict the president wrote Congressman Longworth, Ohio, that Congress should not go below 86,000 as the minimum strength for the navy and his recommendation prevailed over the protest of Kelly and other house leaders. The president may be forced to take similar action this winter because Secretary Denby and General Lord, director of the budget, are deadlocked on navy estimates and General Lord will not accede to the secretary's estimates for appropriations larger than those for the present year. The house committee is likely to slash still further the budget estimates.

MAKE REVISION IN FAIR PRICE COAL
SYSTEM IN STATE

Slashes Made Only in the Rural Districts of Ohio Is Word.

Columbus, Nov. 14.—Fuel administrator Neal announced a revision of the "fair price" schedule for retail coal dealers. The ruling is to become effective Saturday.

Reductions as well as increases are contained in the new schedule. Margin slashes range from 5 cents a ton in Lucas county to 45 cents a ton in Mahoning county, and increases allowed run from 5 cents in Hardin county to 72 cents in Steubenville.

In Toledo an increase of 60 cents was granted; Bucyrus and Mansfield 20 cents; Sandusky 10 cents; Portsmouth, 53 cents; Delaware, 50 cents; Marietta, 48 cents; Hamilton, Middletown, Springfield, Dayton and Canton, 40 cents; Findlay, 30 cents, and Lima, Columbus and Marion, 25 cents. Cuts were made exclusively in rural districts. Cleveland prices were unchanged.

An extra allowance of 50 cents a ton for coke and anthracite was granted. A special rate of 50 cents a ton increase for "hill delivery" for certain sections of Cincinnati also was allowed.

SEVERAL FIREMEN
INJURED IN BLAZE

New York, Nov. 14.—Several firemen were injured, others had narrow escapes and thousands of men and women workers were delayed in reaching their places of employment by a fire which swept through the five story building in the downtown section of Brooklyn today.

Fire captain Frank Gallagher was hurt by the falling roof which came near catching 40 other firemen in the ruins. The blaze threatened to spread to the Metropolitan Hotel and 121 guests fled to safety.

New Brunswick, N. J., Nov. 14.—A dirty old calendar in the home of Mrs. Jane Gibson, self claimed eye witness of the murder of Rev. Dr. Edward W. Hall, rector of the Protestant Episcopal Church of St. John the Evangelist, and the choir singer, Mrs. James Mills, will play an important part in establishing the truth of Mrs. Gibson's story when the Somerset county grand jury takes up the case.

Postponement of the hearing of the Hall-Mills case by the grand jury from Thursday to next Monday was made necessary by the swearing in of a new sheriff of Somerset County today.

The calendar in the case is in the home of Mrs. Gibson. It will be used to prove that Mrs. Nellie Russell, the Negro witness story, was wrong about the date of the night on which Mrs. Gibson called at the Russell home.

Mrs. Russell, in an affidavit, claimed that Mrs. Gibson called at her home on the night of Sept. 14, the night of the double murder—and consequently could not have been upon the Phillips farm where the crime was committed.

When authorities asked Mrs. Gibson about the claims of Mrs. Russell, Mrs. Gibson admitted that she had gone to Mrs. Russell's home to tell her about the theft and recovery of her dog, but that it took place on the night of Sept. 9 not the 14th. To prove her story Mrs. Gibson produced her calendar upon which she marks down all business transactions and other matters she deems of importance.

INVALID TAKES POISON

Cincinnati, Nov. 14.—Mrs. Mathilda Bruckman, 54, was reported in a critical condition at the city hospital as the result of having swallowed poison at her home here. She said she was despondent because of ill health and wanted to "end it all."

BANDITS MISS MINE PAYROLL BY FEW HOURS

Loot of Between $35,000 and $40,000 Saved When Robbers Get Wrong Train

OTHER TRAIN MET

Force Mail Truck Driver to Hand Over Pouch They Believed Valuable

Cartersville, Ill., Nov. 14.—Two unmasked bandits who held up and robbed a rural route mail carrier here early today missed by a few hours a mine payroll of between $35,000 and $40,000, it was disclosed by officials of the coal company, following the theft.

The payroll belonging to the Madison Coal corporation No. 9, near here, is due to arrive in Cartersville on the noon train. The bandits evidently misinformed as to the time of its arrival, met the train arriving at 7:20 o'clock this morning and forced Herbert Rush, the mail truck driver, to deliver them a pouch which they believed contained the payroll.

Marion, Ill., Nov. 14.—A payroll of the mines near Cartersville, believed to be about $40,000, was stolen by two men in an automobile who held up a mail carrier on the rural route early today.

Fifteen-Year-Old Opera Prodigy Found.

Marion Talley

Two self-styled "hard boiled lawyers," of Kansas City, were so overcome by the beauty of the soprano voice of fifteen-year-old Marion Talley, daughter of a Missouri Railway telegraph operator, that they had a public concert, in which she sang and in which $15,000 was raised to further her musical education. Rather than expend the money foolishly, they took her to New York, where Maestro Giulio Gatti-Casazza, of the Metropolitan Opera Co., declared her "find" of years. She will study abroad.

Two Distinct Bodies In Human Being?

Dr. W. S. Leece

Dr. W. Stuart Leece, of Roseau, Minn., created a sensation in a recent meeting of the Mississippi Valley Medical Association when he declared while the human physical body sleeps the ethereal or spiritual body slips away for a nocturnal prowling to some distant part of the globe.

CONSTANTINE WILL NEVER SEEK RETURN TO GREEK THRONE

Former King Says He is Done With Politics—to Live in Retirement

Palermo, Italy, Nov. 14.—Constantine, former king of Greece and an exile from his native land, has retired from active politics for life and never again will seek to return to the Hellenic throne, no matter how loudly the people may call for him, he revealed today in the first interview he has given out since his abdication.

Asked if he would return to Athens to stand trial before a revolutionary tribunal on the charge of being responsible for the Greek military collapse in Asia Minor, Constantine replied:

"It is all nonsense about my returning to Athens. I am not going back to stand trial. It is equal nonsense about my going to Doorn to live near my brother-in-law, the former German kaiser. I am in complete retirement. Never again will I become involved in politics. I have no plan for the future except to lead a quiet, isolated life. I will remain at Villa Igea in Palermo for the time being. If the monarchists in Greece are active in behalf of 'Tino' as Constantine is frequently called, the former king knows nothing of it. He will have nothing to do with Greek affairs; will not even discuss them. There are no couriers from Athens visiting him. Occasionally a personal friend drops in but not to talk politics. That subject is barred."

NAVY FIGHT IS BEGUN TUESDAY IN COMMITTEE

Battle Between "Big" and "Little" Factions Gets Under Way in Capital

HARDING TO GET IN

Ex-president to Take Hand in Argument Over Size of Naval Fleet.

Washington, Nov. 14.—The "big" and "little" navy fight in Congress opened today in the House appropriations committee when a start was made on the navy supply bill for the fiscal year, 1923-24 beginning next July.

Representative Kelly, Republican of Michigan, chairman of the naval appropriations committee is a "little navy" man and he will dominate his committee in holding down appropriation for the navy.

Secretary Denby and the naval experts are arrayed against Kelly, and are prepared to stage a vigorous fight in the general appropriations committee for money to sustain a navy as large as allowed by the armament limitation conference agreement. Kelly is backed to win in the committee fight and the contest will have to be carried to the floor of the house.

President Harding is expected ultimately to take a hand in the navy dispute as he did last spring, and throw his influence behind the advocates of a "big" navy. In the last fight the "little" navy men were determined to cut the navy to a maximum strength of 75,000 although their first proposal was for a navy of 67,000 men. Secretary Denby demanded 96,000 men as the least on which the navy could be maintained at the standard authorized by the armament limitation conference.

With the little navy men about to win the conflict the president wrote Congressman Longworth, Ohio, that Congress should not go below 86,000 as the minimum strength for the navy and his recommendation prevailed over the protest of Kelly and other house leaders. The president may be forced to take similar action this winter because Secretary Denby and General Lord, director of the budget, are deadlocked on navy estimates and General Lord will not accede to the secretary's estimates for appropriations larger than those for the present year. The house committee is likely to slash still further the budget estimates.

MAKE REVISION IN FAIR PRICE COAL SYSTEM IN STATE

Slashes Made Only in the Rural Districts of Ohio Is Word.

Columbus, Nov. 14.—Fuel administrator Neal announced a revision of the "fair price" schedule for retail coal dealers. The ruling is to become effective Saturday.

Reductions as well as increases are contained in the new schedule. Margin slashes range from 5 cents a ton in Lucas county to 45 cents a ton in Mahoning county, and increases allowed run from 5 cents in Hardin county to 72 cents in Steubenville.

In Toledo an increase of 60 cents was granted; Bucyrus and Mansfield 20 cents; Sandusky 10 cents; Portsmouth, 53 cents; Delaware, 50 cents; Marietta, 48 cents; Hamilton, Middletown, Springfield, Dayton and Canton, 40 cents; Findlay, 30 cents, and Lima, Columbus and Marion, 25 cents. Cuts were made exclusively in rural districts. Cleveland prices were unchanged.

An extra allowance of 50 cents a ton for coke and anthracite was granted. A special rate of 50 cents a ton increase for "hill delivery" for certain sections of Cincinnati also was allowed.

SEVERAL FIREMEN INJURED IN BLAZE

New York, Nov. 14.—Several firemen were injured, others had narrow escapes and thousands of men and women workers were delayed in reaching their places of employment by a fire which swept through the five story building in the downtown section of Brooklyn today.

Fire captain Frank Gallagher was hurt by the falling roof which came near catching 40 other firemen in the ruins.

The blaze threatened to spread to the Metropolitan Hotel and 121 guests fled to safety.

PROGRAM OF THE XENIA WOMAN'S MUSIC CLUB.

One of the most interesting programs of the year was that given at the home of Mrs. Alice Ruthrauff, on North King Street, Monday afternoon, by the members of the Third Division of the Xenia Woman's Music Club.

The paper of the afternoon "Jazz" was read by Mrs. Lawrence Shields. The first numbers on the program, "Mighty Lak a Rose," Ethelbert Nevin and "Marchioness, You're Dancing," Gaston Lemaire, were given by Mrs. Graham Bryson.

"Twilight, Fo' Dreamin'." Claude Warford, and "De Old Ark's A-moverin'." David Quoin, were given by Mrs. Raymond Wolf.

Two numbers, "Go Down, Moses," and "Little David, Play on Your Harp," both by Burleigh were rendered by Miss Harriet McCarty.

For her numbers, Miss Bishop played, "Warrior's Song," and "Sometimes I feel Like a Motherless Child," both numbers by S. Coleridge Taylor. Mrs. Steele Poague, gave "My Love is a Muleteer," Francisco di Rogero, and "Rain" (Negro Folk Song) Harriet M. Turner.

"Swing Low, Sweet Chariot," "My Lord, What a Mornin'" and "Heav'n, Heav'n," from Burleigh were well rendered by Mrs. John Davidson.

A delightful number was the Jazz Fantomine "The Crazy Cat," given by Mrs. Alice Ruthrauff, with the assistance of four young girls which closed the afternoon's program.

HOUSE GUEST COMPLIMENTED AT TEA MONDAY AFTERNOON.

Complimenting her sister, Mrs. W. P. Stewart, of Cincinnati, Mrs. D. D. Jones received a company of one hundred and twenty-five guests at her home on East Market Street, Monday afternoon, for tea, the function being one of the most charming of the winter season.

Mrs. Jones was assisted during the afternoon by Mrs. Meda Gowdy, Mrs. Mildred Prugh, Miss Mildred Prugh, Mrs. M. L. Wolf, Mrs. Reed Madden, Mrs. H. D. Smith, Mrs. P. D. Espey, and Mrs. Harry S. LeSourd.

Graceful bouquets of pink and white chrysanthemums were used in the living room by Mrs. Jones, while the same flower, in the shades of yellow and white predominated in the dining room. A salad course was served the guests received at the affair.

Mrs. Reed Madden is entertaining at her home on West Church Street, Wednesday afternoon at a "bridge" honoring Mrs. Stewart.

THANK OFFERING MEETING IS SOCIAL AFFAIR

A delicious oyster supper, followed by a short program was enjoyed by the members of the Sarah M. Chew Missionary Society and the Queen Esther Society of Trinity M. E. Church, on the occasion of the annual thank offering service of the societies, at the church parlors Monday evening.

Twenty five people attended the social meeting and were seated at attractively arranged tables throughout the social room. Following the regular business meeting, a talk on "The Negro" was given by Mrs. J. J. Stout and a solo was given by Mrs. J. R. Laycock. The thank offering collection of the evening amounted to $21.58.

Arrangements for the affair were in the hands of a committee of which Mrs. Harold M. Owens was chairman.

Mrs. J. J. Downing will go to Lebanon, Ind., Wednesday, where she will spend two weeks visiting with her son-in-law and daughter, Prof. and Mrs. Morris M. Jones.

OUR NEIGHBORS

By Hanny.

Mrs. T. L. Magruder fell Tuesday morning at her home on North Detroit Street, and broke her left ankle. She was going down the stairs when she tripped and fell down two or three steps breaking the ankle in the fall. Drs. W. H. and R. Kent Finley were called and set the injured member and she is resting comfortably.

Mrs. Raymond Miller, who was operated upon for appendicitis at the McClellan Hospital last week, is recovering nicely.

Here is the latest photograph of Woodbridge N. Ferris, of Michigan, former Governor of that State and the first Democrat to be elected to the United States Senate from Michigan in seventy years. His first act is expected to be a fight to unseat Senator Truman H. Newberry.

JURY IS SEATED TO HEAR CASE UP FOR SECOND TIME

An hour and one-half was consumed before a jury was finally seated in Common Pleas Court to hear the case of Helen Milburn against Calvin Dimmitt, which is being heard for the second time Wednesday.

The jury finally seated included four women and eight men. They are George Geis, Florence McKay, Sarah Van Eaton, Charles Grier, Nelson Corbin, Stella Zimmerman, John Ross, Nelson Ashbaugh, D. D. Jones, E. R. Bryant, Frank Bickett and Emma Ebright.

Taking of testimony did not start until about 11 o'clock, and two witnesses, Dr. A. C. Messenger and Helen Milburn, were called by attorneys for the plaintiff before noon recess. The case is one in which the defendant is charged with the paternity of the plaintiff's child. It first came up in Common Pleas Court some time ago, and a jury returned a verdict in favor of the defendant. The case was then appealed and a reversal was obtained from the Appellate Court, so that it had to be assigned for rehearing in Common Pleas Court.

C. L. Darlington and Frank Dean are attorneys for the plaintiff and F. L. Johnson is counsel for the defendant. There were few spectators in court Tuesday morning.

FRIDAY WILL BE HOMECOMING DAY FOR XENIA HIGH

Friday will be "Home Coming Day" on the schedule of the Central High School football team when old grads, alumni and former Central High athletes are expected to turn out in large numbers for the football game between Coach "Puss" Burger's eleven and Washington C. H. High.

Athletic authorities, fans and players are boosting the game with Washington with anticipations of the largest crowd of the season being on hand. There is more than one reason for this supposition. The game will be the last home contest on the football schedule of Central High. Further the athletic relations between Xenia and Washington have been long and honorable, and there has always been much athletic rivalry between the two schools and much interest in the outcome of the various meetings.

Furthermore Washington is being coached this year by a former Central High "three-letter" athlete, Warren "Weiner" Vannorsdall, who played football, basketball and baseball for the local school several years ago. In addition, his brother, "Squeek" Vannorsdall, who played on the football team under Coach Ward Young two years ago and who starred in last winter's basketball five, is now playing quarterback for the Washington eleven. It will be "homecoming" for the Vannorsdalls that day if for no one else, and many of their friends here are expecting to turn out to see the team coached by Coach Vannorsdall and to see his brother play against his former teammates.

Washington has a good team this year, and a comparison of the teams can be obtained from the fact that both Washington and Xenia played scoreless ties with London this season. This is taken as evidence that the teams are evenly matched, and the grid bugs are expecting an unusually warm tussle.

The "home coming" program will probably include a student parade, music by the high school orchestra and the biggest turn out of rooters in the history of the 1922 grid campaign. In the evening the Washington players will be guests of honor at a dance to be given by the high school students.

A RAW, SORE THROAT

Eases Quickly When You Apply a Little Musterole

And Musterole won't blister like the old-fashioned mustard plaster. Just spread it on with your fingers. It penetrates to the sore spot with a gentle tingle, loosens the congestion and draws out the soreness and pain.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment made with oil of mustard. It is fine for quick relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds on the chest. Keep it handy for instant use. 35c and 65c, jars and tubes; hospital size, $3.00.

Better than a mustard plaster

G. M. C. MANAGER DIES IN DAYTON

F. B. McNab, 37, business manager of the General Motors Research Laboratories Corporation, died at 4:15 o'clock Monday afternoon at his residence in Oakwood, following an illness lasting since last May.

Mr. McNab came to Dayton in 1910 as patent attorney for the Delco-Dayton Engineering Laboratories Corporation. He was previously in the patent office in Washington D. C., he was born August 10, 1885 in Clinton, Mass., and was admitted to the Supreme Court bar in the District of Columbia in 1907. Three years after coming to Dayton he married Miss Jewel Stork.

Surviving is his wife, one daughter, Dorothy, his mother Mrs. Jennie M. McNab, a sister, Alice E. McNab, Clinton, Mass., and a brother, John F. McNab, principal examiner in the patent office at Washington D. C. Mr. McNab was chairman of the Triangle Park Association executive committee, member of the Bicycle Club, Dayton Country Club, Miami Valley Hunt and Polo Club, Engineers' Club and Automotive Engineers' Association of America. Funeral services will be held at 11 o'clock Thursday morning at the residence and burial will be made in Woodland Cemetery, Dayton.

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL

John Wisecup, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wisecup, of Trumbull Street, was taken by Miss Helen Evers, Red Cross Public Health nurse to the District Tubercular Hospital at Springfield Friday, where he will undergo a course of treatment. A brother, Dewey Wisecup, of Oles Station, entered the Military Home at Dayton, Friday where he will undergo an operation for goitre.

CAST WILL MEET.

The cast of "The Microbe of Love" to be staged under the auspices of the Federated Parent-Teacher Association will meet in the assembly room of the Court House Tuesday evening at seven o'clock.

CLIFTON

Miss Olive Coe, of Springfield, was the week end guest of Miss Olive Coe, of Clifton.

Mr. Lester Braley attended the Billy Sunday meetings at Dayton, last Saturday.

Prof. and Mrs. S. E. Shupp and family spent last Sunday in Bellbrook.

The following elders were elected by ballot at the Presbyterian Church last Sunday morning: Messrs. Albert Anderson, Herbert Corry, James Swaby and Karl Corry. The vote on the new hymn book was 65 for—39 against.

Messrs. Alfred and Arthur Swaby Dr. J. H. Harris and Frank Turner left last Wednesday for New Brunswick to hunt deer.

FOOTBALL INTEREST HIGH

Football at Wilmington will reach the pinnacle of enthusiasm Saturday of this week when the strong Quaker College team meets Dayton University. Both teams have a long string of victories to their credit and the "dope" makes their strength about equal. It is to be made the homecoming game at Wilmington and the crowd that will attend is expected to break all records.

It's toasted. This one extra process gives a delightful quality that can not be duplicated

Conservative Stylish Gowns for Older and Stout Women

$15.00 to $39.75

KORRECT GOWNS FOR OLDER MATRONS

$15.00 to $25.00

Conservative in line, but very stylish and dressy, are the gowns of poiret twill, tricotine or serges that come in styles particularly adapted to the older matron. Extra width in the skirts, long sleeves, and collars, with softening, graceful lines, combine to make these dresses comfortable and becoming to the older woman.

They come in navy, the new darker shades of brown, and black. The style features of the season are pleasingly modified to suit the older woman's tastes without losing any of their smartness. Good assortment from which to choose.

$15.00, $19.75, $25.00 and up

STYLISH STOUT DRESSES

$19.75 to $39.50

The importance of correct line and becoming color has been kept constantly in mind in the designing of these dresses for the woman of full figure. Not only have the dresses been carefully cut on long, flowing lines but the trimmings have been chosen and placed with a view to carrying out the slenderizing effect without sacrificing one whit of the smartness of the gown.

Street and general purpose dresses of serge, poiret twill, tricotine and wool serge are delightfully stylish. Priced

There Is Dignity and Charm In These VELVET HATS FOR OLDER WOMEN

$4.00 to $8.50

Desiring style and smartness without trying extremes in line or color, the older woman will find in this group hats made especially for her needs. Handsome materials such as Lyons and Panne velvet have been employed, and soft velvet drapes, feathers or flowers form trimmings.

They come in black, navy, brown and taupe, in toque or narrow brim styles. A pleasing array from which to make selection.

$4.00 to $8.50

SPORT SETS FOR YOUNGER WOMEN

$6.00

Jaunty sport sets, hat and scarf, of tan or grey camels hair, the scarfs finished with tassels. Snug and warm for mid-winter use.

$6.00

FRIDAY WILL BE HOMECOMING DAY FOR XENIA HIGH

Friday will be "Home Coming Day" on the schedule of the Central High School football team when old grads, alumni and former Central High athletes are expected to turn out in large numbers for the football game between Coach "Puss" Burgner's eleven and Washington C. H. High.

Athletic authorities, fans and players are looking forward to the game with Washington with anticipations of the largest crowd of the season being on hand. There is more than one reason for this supposition. The game will be the last home contest on the football schedule of Central High.

Further the athletic relations between Xenia and Washington have been long and honorable, and there has always been much athletic rivalry between the two schools and much interest in the outcome of the various meetings. Furthermore Washington is being coached this year by a former Central High "three-letter" athlete, Warren "Weiner" Vannorsdall, who played football, basketball and baseball for the local school several years ago. In addition, his brother, "Squeek" Vannorsdall, who played on the football team under Coach Ward Young two years ago and who starred in last winter's basketball five, is now playing quarterback for the Washington eleven. It will be "homecoming" for the Vannorsdalls that day if for no other else, and many of their friends here are expecting to turn out to see the team coached by Coach Vannorsdall and to see his brother play against his former teammates.

Washington has a good team this year, and a comparison of the teams can be obtained from the fact that both Washington and Xenia played scoreless ties with London this season. This is taken as evidence that the teams are evenly matched, and the grid bugs are expecting an unusually warm tussle.

The "home coming" program will probably include a student parade, music by the high school orchestra and the biggest turn out of rooters in the history of the 1922 grid campaign. In the evening the Washington players will be guests of honor at a dance to be given by the high school students.

A RAW, SORE THROAT

Eases Quickly When You Apply a Little Musterole

And Musterole won't blister like the old-fashioned mustard plaster. Just spread it on with your fingers. It penetrates to the sore spot with a gentle tingle, loosens the congestion and draws out the soreness and pain.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment made with oil of mustard. It is fine for quick relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds on the chest. Keep it handy for instant use. 35c and 65c jars and tubes; hospital size, $3.00.

KORRECT GOWNS FOR OLDER MATRONS

$15.00 to $25.00

Conservative in line, but very stylish and dressy, are the gowns of poiret twill, tricotine or serges that come in styles particularly adapted to the older matron. Extra width in the skirts, long sleeves, and collars, with softening, graceful lines, combine to make these dresses comfortable and becoming to the older woman.

They come in navy, the new darker shades of brown, and black. The style features of the season are pleasingly modified to suit the older woman's tastes without losing any of their smartness. Good assortment from which to choose.

$15.00, $19.75, $25.00 and up

STYLISH STOUT DRESSES

$19.75 to $39.50

The importance of correct line and becoming color has been kept constantly in mind in the designing of these dresses for the woman of full figure. Not only have the dresses been carefully cut on long, flowing lines but the trimmings have been chosen and placed with a view to carrying out the slenderizing effect without sacrificing one whit of the smartness of the gown.

Street and general purpose dresses of serge, poiret twill, tricotine and wool serge are delightfully stylish. Priced

WALES GOES WILD OVER EX-PREMIER.

David Lloyd George has completed his six-day swing around the circle of the land of his nativity pleading with "old friends" to support his National-Liberal candidates largely on the basis of his own personality.

Even though it is known in Wales that despite his outstanding personality in the British political battle he is without a party organization and has no chance of winning a majority he has received in every hamlet a welcome such as no other leader ever approached in the many trips they have taken. Whatever his possibilities in the new Commons, he still has a firm hold on the reputation that he can attract and hold larger and louder crowds than any man in Great Britain.

To one small crowd assembled at the boundary of Pembrokeshire, where his ancestors came from, he diverted to the Welsh language, which, however, he will use very little this trip, not withstanding the Welsh naturally warm up better in that language. But its translation heretofore has given twists to his sentences, afterward proving embarrassing, and he is taking no chances.

THANKS FOR THE HARVEST.

Having a plentiful harvest after four years of small crops, the farmers of New England, N. D., this week gave public thanks to God for blessings received. Clergymen of various denominations led the prayers of gratitude.

It is an ancient custom to implore Heaven for bountiful fields and pastures, and then to offer thanks after the harvest. And it is a bountiful custom. We cannot deride the most evident fact that life and health are gifts.

RUNNING AWAY FROM TROUBLE.

A Japanese, father of six children, killed himself the other day in a room in which the three eldest children were asleep. He had come to the United States to run an exhibit at the St. Louis World's Fair, in 1904. His wife had died nearly a year ago. Business had been bad for some time and he had worried himself to despair.

Suicide generally is the climax of temporary insanity, of which worry is most frequently the cause. In this case, six children, if their relatives in Japan will not take them, will have to fight life's battle unaided—and the eldest is only eight years of age.

Suicide never mends a predicament. Neither does worry. Neither does discouragement. Our worst troubles are never as serious as they seem to be, nor the outlook as dark. We intensify worry by nurturing it.

Employment is the best cure of adversity and despondency. It keeps us busy and hopeful, and we haven't time for brooding.

THE FASCISTI TAKE FULL CHARGE.

Quite clever it appeared to be for the Italian King to hand the government over to Benito Mussolini, head of the Fascisti. In the first place, he obviated a bloody revolution. In the second place, he invested Mussolini with responsibility to the people.

The crisis is yet to come in Italy. The country has been modernized in the past twenty years or more, but there have been social and economic ills which have caused much unrest. There have been strong socialistic tendencies there.

On taking charge Mussolini has made a shrewd move. He has divided authority and responsibility with the Nationalists. He has established practically a coalition government, leaving out the Socialists.

The Mussolini administration probably will not last long. He will be unable to please his following. With the aid of the coalition groups, however, popular reforms may be started which would have the effect of developing a strong, unified, democratic sentiment, and a vigorous patriotic sentiment.

TRUST FUND FOR FLOWERS.

A New York millionaire leaves a trust fund to the cemetery where he will be buried to provide, among other things, "for planting of flower beds four feet in diameter, one on the northerly side of the monument and one on the southerly side, the first year with pansies and the next year with white geraniums."

Most people will smile at this sentimental interest in one's own cemetery decorations and the wish to dictate them from the grave. In all probability, it will matter very little to that foresighted millionaire what flowers grow in the soil that covers his mortal remains, or whether any flowers grow there at all. If the thinking part of him still lives, as most people believe, it is very likely superior to such mundane considerations. If not, he will never know.

Yet if one must plan his own memorial, surely a bed of one's favorite flowers is as sensible as a block of marble, and much pleasanter to the living.

EDNA KENT FORBES

Reader—Gray eyes, olive skin, dark hair and lashes sound like a delightful combination. With such coloring you can wear almost any shade. Browns and grays will probably be most becoming since they will bring out the eyes and hair. Your colors should be mostly those of a brunette—yellows, reds, gold, brown and such shades.

Chum.—Try massaging with ice to reduce the bust. If you will send me a s. a. e. repeating your question I will mail the table of weights.

A. M. O.—Use tar or castile soap for shampooing. If the hair is coming out you need a tonic. I will send you mine if you will forward me a s. a. e.

I. B.—Try a cleansing cream for your complexion, ice rubs and a daily vigorous rubbing with a soft brush, hot water and castile soap. Your hair is probably in need of a good tonic.

K. E. F.—I believe a daily general treatment to stimulate the skin will rid you of those brown marks. Scrub the face with a complexion brush, a mild soap and hot water, rinse in hot water, massage in a little cream, and end with an ice rub. This will leave the skin soft and exfoliated. In time, I am sure the spots will disappear as any treatment which stimulates and brings fresh blood into the face, rejuvenates the complexion.

Daily Reader.—If you will send me a s. a. e. I will forward the complexion creams and plocarpine tonic.

Constant Reader.—The starch treatment is intended to cleanse the pores, but like all powder it will absorb the secretions, so always use enough cream later until the skin has recovered from this drying process.

Betty.—Either quince seed or gum tragacanth will make a good curling fluid. In either case dissolve by using hot water and let it stand overnight, longer if need be. The result will be a heavy, sticky mixture which should be diluted until it forms a thin mulleage. Dampen the hair with this and form into curls, which should be held in place while the hair dries. Comb and shake out the dried particles, which will in no way effect the curling.

Distracted Mother.—Soak the hair in kerosene and tie up the head overnight. This will kill the active vermin. Next day shampoo thoroughly; then begin to comb the hair with a fine toothed comb that is kept wet by constant dipping in vinegar. This will remove the shells from the hair shafts. Sometimes it is necessary to lace such a comb by weaving through the teeth strong silk thread, since some of these shells are so small they will slip through the teeth.

GOOD INFLUENCE.

While singing, angel-throated, I cleared my place of weeds, and all the neighbors noted my wise and righteous deeds. The neighborhood was shabby, much rubbish was in view, with here an old dead tabby, and there a kangaroo. The houses were unpainted, as were the gates and stiles, and all the air was tainted by many garbage piles. I said, "Though all my neighbors may let things go to smash, I'll spring some useful labors, and clear away my trash. I'll make my place so nifty that passers-by will stand, in groups of ten or fifty, and say it beats the band." My deeds the neighbors noted, and cried, in terms refined, "That bard so fat and bloated, can't leave us all behind. If he, in hat and sweater, can make things neat and clean, we too can make things better, we wot and wist and ween." And so they all got busy, and labored through the day; in barrow and in Lizzie they hauled the trash away. And now when strangers wander along our village street, they gaze and mark and ponder, and say we can't be beat. They say, "This town is giving new curves in human bliss; there is some sense in living in such a burg as this."

Today's Talk

TWO THINGS

There are two things that should be in the back of every decent man's head—the buying and owning a home of his own, and the carrying of an adequate insurance policy.

The one protects gives happiness and security while he lives, and the other assures him the satisfaction that those whom he loves and who have for long served him are not going to be left unhappy or forgotten when he is gone.

The mere hoarding and piling of money is getting to be less and less attractive.

It is far better to leave a boy an honest name and an understandable formula for work, than any possible sized fortune.

An inherited character is the richest thing a boy could receive.

And this is developed best in a home where all the the ennobling influences of life are born.

Yes, go into debt for a home. And keep up your life insurance policy, even though you have to sacrifice greatly to do so.

These two are the great agencies that breed success and happiness.

A real man must learn the great art of "rubbing shoulders" with other men, of finding in them something attractive and uplifting, as well as being coming needful and necessary to them. But only as he is secured in his own mind by a background of preparation is he able to tread with sound and sure step.

Have a home—get your life insured! Be a real citizen and a mover for the best in your community. And consider your voting one of your greatest privileges.

Walk straight ahead—and keep your chin up!

PHONE UNIFICATION INCREASES SERVICE DECLARES MANAGER

Announcement was made Tuesday by Manager H. W. Cleaver of The Ohio Bell Telephone Company in Xenia, that plans have been perfected to unify the divided telephone service in Xenia and Greene County through the consolidation of the Xenia and Yellow Springs exchanges and the enlargement of the present service furnished to the subscribers of all exchanges in the county. The company plans to complete the consolidation so that universal local and long distance telephone service can be furnished beginning January 1, 1923.

"For more than twenty years Xenia and Greene County have had divided telephone service, the subscribers of one group being unable to communicate with the subscribers of the other group," said Mr. Cleaver in commenting on the merger. "There has been much demand for the elimination of the double telephone nuisance and following the approval of the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio and of the Interstate Commerce Commission at Washington, the Ohio Bell Company purchased the property of The Springfield and Xenia Telephone Company effective as of October 1, 1922."

Mr. Cleaver states that his company after consideration and in response to the wishes of the telephone subscribers in Xenia and at other exchanges in the county, will generally enlarge the scope of service which has been furnished between the exchanges in the county during the past to all subscribers of both the Bell and former Springfield and Xenia Companies, as a result of the unification. Xenia subscribers of the Bell exchange, at this time secure connection at no additional cost above the rates paid for local exchange service, with the subscribers of the Bell exchanges at Yellow Springs, Springfield, Clifton and Bellbrook and the former Springfield and Xenia Company exchange subscribers likewise communicate with the subscribers of the former Springfield and Xenia Company exchanges at Jamestown and Bowersville and also to the Cedarville Telephone Company.

"After the unification the Xenia exchange subscribers can communicate with all subscribers at Yellow Springs, Clifton, Jamestown, Bowersville, Springfield, Valley and Bellbrook as well as with the subscribers of the Cedarville exchange of the Cedarville Telephone Company with no additional cost above the rates paid for exchange service," Mr. Cleaver said. "The principal point of communication for the Yellow Springs, Jamestown and Bowersville subscribers of the former Springfield and Xenia Company has during the past, been the Xenia subscribers of that company, but after the unification the subscribers in these three towns will be able to communicate with all Xenia subscribers. The Yellow Springs, Clifton, Bellbrook and Springfield Bell subscribers have during the past been able to communicate principally with only the Bell subscribers at Xenia but after the unification the subscribers at these exchanges will likewise be able to communicate with all Xenia subscribers. After unification approximately 4,000 telephone subscribers will be available to intercommunication with Xenia patrons."

The physical consolidation at the Xenia exchanges will be made by cutting the subscribers of the former Springfield and Xenia exchange over to the Ohio Bell exchange after the Central office has been enlarged. This work is now going on. The toll lines now connected with the Springfield and Xenia exchange will also be cut over to the Bell exchange toll board and this will enable any telephone subscriber in Xenia or any of the smaller exchanges in the county to reach any other subscriber at distant points which were formerly connected with either system. The Bell exchange subscribers will thus be able to use the former toll lines connected with the Springfield and Xenia system and the former Springfield and Xenia subscribers will have access to the toll lines of the Bell Company.

"The rates for the new and enlarged unified service have been approved by the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio," Mr. Cleaver said, "and for the Xenia exchange are, individual and two party line business $6.00 and $5.00 net per month respectively."

spectively, individual, two party and four party residence $2.75, $2.25 and $2.00 net per month respectively rural business and residence $3.00 and $2.25 net per month respectively."

"At Yellow Springs, Clifton, Jamestown, Bowersville, Springfield Valley and Bellbrook the principal rates approved by the Commission for the unified service are, individual and two party business service $3.50 and $3.00 net per month respectively, individual and two party residence service $2.25 and $2.00 net per month respectively, rural business and residence service $3.00 and $2.25 net per month respectively."

Mr. Cleaver announces that in addition to the large expenditures made necessary to consolidate the central offices and outside plant facilities in Xenia and Yellow Springs, his company also will add additional circuits between many of the exchanges in the county in order that more prompt and satisfactory service may be rendered.

The consolidation of the exchanges in Xenia and Yellow Springs will be made so that unified service will be furnished beginning January 1, 1923. The new service will also be given to all other exchanges in the county beginning at the same time. The rates approved by the Public Utilities Commission will not take effect until the new and enlarged service is furnished.

PHONE UNIFICATION INCREASES SERVICE DECLARES MANAGER

Announcement was made Tuesday by Manager H. W. Cleaver of The Ohio Bell Telephone Company in Xenia, that plans have been perfected to unify the divided telephone service in Xenia and Greene County through the consolidation of the Xenia and Yellow Springs exchanges and the enlargement of the present service furnished to the subscribers of all exchanges in the county. The company plans to complete the consolidation so that universal local and long distance telephone service can be furnished beginning January 1, 1923.

"For more than twenty years Xenia and Greene County have had divided telephone service, the subscribers of one group being unable to communicate with the subscribers of the other group," said Mr. Cleaver in commenting on the merger. "There has been much demand for the elimination of the double telephone nuisance and following the approval of the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio and of the Interstate Commerce Commission at Washington, the Ohio Bell Company purchased the property of The Springfield and Xenia Telephone Company effective as of October 1, 1922."

Mr. Cleaver states that his company after consideration and in response to the wishes of the telephone subscribers in Xenia and at other exchanges in the county, will generally enlarge the scope of service which has been furnished between the exchanges in the county during the past to all subscribers of both the Bell and former Springfield and Xenia Companies, as a result of the unification. Xenia subscribers of the Bell exchange, at this time secure connection at no additional cost above the rates paid for local exchange service, with the subscribers of the Bell exchanges at Yellow Springs, Springfield, Clifton and Bellbrook and the former Springfield and Xenia Company exchange subscribers likewise communicate with the subscribers of the former Springfield and Xenia Company exchanges at Jamestown, Bowersville and also to the Cedarville Telephone Company. "After the unification the Xenia exchange subscribers can communicate with all subscribers at Yellow Springs, Clifton, Jamestown, Bowersville, Springfield and Bellbrook as well as with the subscribers of the Cedarville exchange of the Cedarville Telephone Company with no additional cost above the rates paid for exchange service," Mr. Cleaver said.

"The principal point of communication for the Yellow Springs, Jamestown and Bowersville subscribers of the former Springfield and Xenia Company has during the past, been the Xenia subscribers of that company, but after the unification the subscribers in these three towns will be able to communicate with all Xenia subscribers. The Yellow Springs, Clifton, Bellbrook and Springfield Bell subscribers have during the past been able to communicate principally with only the Bell subscribers at Xenia but after the unification the subscribers at these exchanges will likewise be able to communicate with all Xenia subscribers. After unification approximately 4,000 telephone subscribers will be available to intercommunication with Xenia patrons."

The physical consolidation at the Xenia exchanges will be made by cutting the subscribers of the former Springfield and Xenia exchange over to the Ohio Bell exchange after the Central office has been enlarged. This work is now going on. The toll lines now connected with the Springfield and Xenia exchange will also be cut over to the Bell exchange toll board and this will enable any telephone subscriber in Xenia or any of the smaller exchanges in the county to reach any other subscriber at distant points which were formerly connected with either system. The Bell exchange subscribers will thus be able to use the former toll lines connected with the Springfield and Xenia system and the former Springfield and Xenia subscribers will have access to the toll lines of the Bell Company.

"The rates for the new and enlarged unified service have been approved by the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio," Mr. Cleaver said, "and for the Xenia exchange are, individual and two party line business $6.00 and $5.00 net per month respectively, individual, two party and four party residence $2.75, $2.25 and $2.00 net per month respectively, rural business and residence $3.00 and $2.25 net per month respectively.

"At Yellow Springs, Clifton, Jamestown, Bowersville, Springfield and Bellbrook the principal rates approved by the Commission for the unified service are, individual and two party business service $3.50 and $3.00 net per month respectively, individual and two party residence service $2.25 and $2.00 net per month respectively, rural business and residence service $3.00 and $2.25 net per month respectively."

Mr. Cleaver announces that in addition to the large expenditures made necessary to consolidate the central offices and outside plant facilities in Xenia and Yellow Springs, his company also will add additional circuits between many of the exchanges in the county in order that more prompt and satisfactory service may be rendered.

The consolidation of the exchanges in Xenia and Yellow Springs will be made so that unified service will be furnished beginning January 1, 1923. The new service will also be given to all other exchanges in the county beginning at the same time. The rates approved by the Public Utilities Commission will not take effect until the new and enlarged service is furnished.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL DRIVE GETS UNDER WAY ON TUESDAY

A combined energetic force of workers, who hope through united effort and small territory to make it "Four thousand or bust" invaded Xenia City and Greene County in the Sixth Annual Red Cross Roll Call Drive, of the Greene County Chapter of the Red Cross, Tuesday.

The one-day campaign was handled by the Red Cross drive officials by enlisting the aid of a number of business men of the city who canvassed the business district, through committees who have charge of a house-to-house canvass in the residential district, and over the county, where the territory was divided into small areas for a number of workers.

The business men in whose hands the soliciting of the business district was laid, were, J. D. Adair, S. M. McKay, Findley Torrence, Ed Wood, Charles Kelble, Elmer Anderson, W. E. Boring, Harold M. Owens, Paul Fetz, R. W. Irwin, James Paulin, C. S. Frazer, E. K. Richards, Ford S. Prince, J. Thorb Charters, Frank L. Smith, E. F. Canby, L. S. Barnes, E. H. Heathman, and H. C. Aultman. A few of the solicitors in the business district began their work Monday, meeting with much success on the inauguration day.

DRIVER OF TRUCK HELD UP MONDAY ON DAYTON PIKE

David Clark, Dayton, driver of a U-Save-It Stores Company truck returning from Xenia to Dayton at 7:30 o'clock Monday night, was held up and robbed of $77 in cash by two men who climbed on his truck three miles from Dayton on the Dayton and Xenia pike.

The men boarded the machine at the rear, and forced the rear door open unknown to Clark. They then placed a gun at the back of his head and ordered him to drive to the side of the road. When he complied, one of them removed the money from the driver's pocket, and they both then escaped by the rear of the truck and disappeared in the darkness.

Clark drove to Dayton and notified Sheriff Cusick who took up the search with a squad of deputies but found no trace of the bandits. The robbery occurred an hour after a masked bandit had driven up to a Refiners Oil Company filling station, at Main Street and Cincinnati pike, Oakwood, Dayton, and at the point of a gun had relieved the operator of $73 in cash.

PUBLIC SERVICE ON HIGHER PLANE FESS SAYS IN TALK

Yellow Springs, Nov. 14.—Senator Simeon D. Fess addressed a large group of Antioch students, faculty, members, and Yellow Springs people at the regular college vesper services, Sunday evening.

With the elevated character of public service today as his theme, he contrasted present standards of conduct with those of thirty years ago. As indications of the marked change in the attitude of the public mind in questions of moral and social justice, and a tendency to look to the relief side of legislation, he cited the banishment of liquor from the House restaurant, child labor reforms, and corrective legislation for women in industry. The stress of modern civilization demands that issues be determined on a moral basis, limited only by civil reason, he said. The basing of labor decisions on public service, and the creation of old age pensions are expressions of this new view. As further indications of higher standards, he pointed out prohibition, the addition of women to public life, and the growth of student enrollment in the universities.

"The individual who represents the public is making greater effort to make his public character coincide with his private," continued Dr. Fess. By way of illustration, he recalled a past conversation with McKinley, who, at that time, had been recently elected governor.

"Why not enter the arena for the State Senate?" proposed McKinley.

"But, Governor, can a fellow go in to politics and take his character with him?" asked Mr. Fess.

Throwing an arm over the young man's shoulder, McKinley replied, "If you think a man cannot be the same in public life as in private, never enter public life."

In concluding, Dr. Fess said, "There isn't quite the proper appreciation shown in remuneration for the teachers and clergy. It is so easy to make more money in other ways, that the professions are depreciating. When brawn commands a greater price than brain, the nation will degenerate."

The one-day campaign was handled by the Red Cross drive officials by enlisting the aid of a number of business men of the city who canvassed the business district, through committees who have charge of a house-to-house canvass in the residential district, and over the county, where the territory was divided into small areas for a number of workers.

The business men in whose hands the soliciting of the business district was laid, were: J. D. Adair, S. M. McKay, Findley Torrance, Ed. Wood, Charles Kelble, Elmer Anderson, W. E. Boring, Harold M. Owens, Paul Petz, R. W. Irwin, James Paulin, C. S. Frazer, E. K. Richards, Ford S. Prince, J. Thorb Charters, Frank L. Smith, E. F. Canby, L. S. Barnes, E. H. Heathman, and H. C. Aultman. A few of the solicitors in the business district began their work Monday, meeting with much success on the inauguration day.

Optimistic reports are being received at Red Cross Headquarters from the committees heading the house-to-house canvass throughout the county.

DRIVER OF TRUCK HELD UP MONDAY ON DAYTON PIKE

David Clark, Dayton, driver of a U-Save-It Stores Company truck returning from Xenia to Dayton at 7:30 o'clock Monday night, was held up and robbed of $77 in cash by two men who climbed on his truck three miles from Dayton on the Dayton and Xenia pike.

The men boarded the machine at the rear, and forced the rear door open unknown to Clark. They then placed a gun at the back of his head and ordered him to drive to the side of the road. When he complied, one of them removed the money from the driver's pocket, and they both then escaped by the rear of the truck and disappeared in the darkness.

Clark drove to Dayton and notified Sheriff Cusick who took up the search with a squad of deputies but found no trace of the bandits. The robbery occurred an hour after a masked bandit had driven up to a Refiners Oil Company filling station, at Main Street and Cincinnati pike, Oakwood, Dayton, and at the point of a gun had relieved the operator of $73 in cash.

EXHAUSTED FROM GRIPPE COUGH

La grippe coughs rack and tear the sufferer to a state of exhaustion. "Would get completely exhausted from violent grippe coughs," writes H. G. Collins, Barnegat, N. J., "Tried Foley's Honey and Tar and the cough ceased entirely." Used by three generations for coughs, colds and croup, throat, chest and bronchial irritation, Foley's Honey and Tar has stood the test of time. Contains no opiates—ingredients printed on the wrapper. Largest selling cough medicine in the world.—Sayre and Hemphill.

ITCHING ECZEMA DRIED RIGHT UP WITH SULPHUR

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Mentho-Sulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve the torment and disfigurement. Sufferers from skin trouble should get a little jar of Rowles' Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like a cold cream.

PUBLIC SERVICE ON HIGHER PLANE FESS SAYS IN TALK

Yellow Springs, Nov. 14.—Senator Simeon D. Fess addressed a large group of Antioch students, faculty, members, and Yellow Springs people at the regular college vespers services, Sunday evening.

With the elevated character of public service today as his theme, he contrasted present standards of conduct with those of thirty years ago. As indications of the marked change in the attitude of the public mind in questions of moral and social justice, and a tendency to look to the relief side of legislation, he cited the banishment of liquor from the House restaurant, child labor reforms, and corrective legislation for women in industry. The stress of modern civilization demands that issues be determined on a moral basis, limited only by civil reason, he said. The basing of labor decisions on public service, and the creation of old age pensions are expressions of this new view. As further indications of higher standards, he pointed out prohibition, the addition of women to public life, and the growth of student enrollment in the universities.

"The individual who represents the public is making greater effort to make his public character coincide with his private," continued Dr. Fess. By way of illustration, he recalled a past conversation with McKinley, who, at that time, had been recently elected governor.

"Why not enter the arena for the State Senate?" proposed McKinley. "But, Governor, can a fellow go in to politics and take his character with him?" asked Mr. Fess.

Throwing an arm over the young man's shoulder, McKinley replied, "If you think a man cannot be the same in public life as in private, never enter public life."

In concluding, Dr. Fess said, "There isn't quite the proper appreciation shown in remuneration for the teachers and clergy. It is so easy to make more money in other ways, that the professions are depreciating. When brawn commands a greater price than brain, the nation will degenerate."

COURT ANNOUNCES MUSSELS RULING

Washington, Nov. 14.—Mussels do not move by their own power and the taking of these water denizens from privately owned lands may be trespass, the Supreme Court of the United States today decided in a suit brought by James McKee, and others against Benjamin Gratz involving the landing of mussels from the Little River, Mo. The mussel gatherers lost their appeal through affirmation by Supreme Court of the United States of the decision of the lower court.

DUSENBURG LOSES CASE

Washington, Nov. 14.—The Duesenburg Motors corporation lost in the supreme court of the United States its suit for damages under war time contracts.

Claims aggregating about $1,400,000 against the United States for breach of contract, in delaying the Duesenburg Motors corporation in its manufacture of motor engines, prevented it from making its profits and subjecting it to commercial losses and interest payments, were involved.

FOURTEEN INDICTED IN FEDERAL COURT IN WHISKEY CONSPIRACY

Fourteen men were indicted by the Federal Grand Jury in Federal Court Monday in connection with the theft of grain alcohol valued at $204,000, in a case that is believed to rival in magnitude the famous Remus conspiracy case in Cincinnati.

Included in the 14 men against whom true bills were returned are Charles S. Wessel and Anthony Cyronise, arrested here by local authorities some time ago, and turned over to federal authorities when they were found to have a quantity of gin, said to have been prepared by the Consolidated Drug Company of Columbus, and to have been destined for local consumption. The men were arrested when they arrived in Xenia with the liquor in a truck, and six cases of gin each containing 12 quart bottles labelled with the fictitious name of a company operating in London and Glasgow, were confiscated.

The men were turned over to federal authorities from Dayton, who had already been working on the alleged whiskey ring. Others indicted by Federal Grand Jury are Cecil H. Kearns, Zebnor C. Rose, Alexander M. Mason, Tony Sodd, Nathan J. Borenstein, W. Earl Tallheim, John C. Price, Mrs. brother, Frank Price, Chester A. Browning, C. L. Gray, J. S. Barton and Doe Green.

History of the alcohol ring shows that the alleged theft was committed at Hermitage, Tenn., early last January. Rose, Browning, Green and the Price brothers were arrested in Dayton several months ago and 75 barrels of alcohol recovered. In all, 24,000 gallons of pure grain alcohol were said to have been stolen from the government warehouse, known as Old Hickory Powder plant at Hermitage. In excess of 100,000 gallons were stored at the warehouse at the time.

The indictments say these 24,000 gallons were shipped to Dayton, Chicago, Covington, Ky., Cleveland, Wheeling, W. Va., and from Dayton to Columbus and from Columbus to Xenia. It is charged that on January 30, 1921, Kearns, doing business as the Southern Distilled Alcohol Company purchased from the Nashville Industrial Corporation, 100 barrels containing 5,000 gallons of alcohol, which was to have been denatured before being shipped. On this same day, Kearns, Tallheim, Mason and Wessel delivered 100 barrels of alcohol marked "denatured" to the Tennessee Central Railway Company for shipment to points north. Sodd, an employee of the Nashville Industrial Corporation, original owner of the alcohol, had as his duties in this capacity, denaturing the alcohol. In the indictment he is charged with destroying the denaturing fluid and permitting the alcohol to leave the warehouse in its original form.

Gray was the storekeeper, ganger and official representative of the internal revenue department, who was supposed to be present at the time the alcohol was denatured, and who certified to the government it had been denatured before it was shipped. Ninety barrels of this alcohol reached Dayton, February 7, and was placed in storage by Zeb Rose and Kearns. Rose and Kearns are charged with shipping two barrels to Columbus February 22, at about the time revenue agents arrived in Dayton in search of the alcohol.

Rose and Kearns then removed the entire amount stored in the warehouse to the farm of Browning at Moraine City, where it was hidden. John Price and Green are said to have assisted in this removal. Two more barrels were found in John Price's home, when he was arrested. Wessel and Cyronise are charged with transporting gin, alleged to have been manufactured out of the alcohol from Columbus to Xenia, where it was to have been sold, when the two were arrested here. Kearns, Wessel and Mason are charged with causing two barrels to be shipped to the Continental Drug Company, South High Street, Columbus.

Several of the defendants have already been arrested and are at liberty under bond, while others have not yet been taken into custody. Caplases will be issued for their arrests and they will be brought into court within a day or two, it is said.

Here is another interesting model in which gold trimming plays an important part in giving life and attractiveness to a brown dress. It is a model imported from Patou. Brown kasha cloth is used, and you who are perhaps conservative may not like this, but the sleeves are made of white organdie, banded with gold galloon. The effect is extremely original, and pleasingly so. Of course Georgette may be substituted.

As the sketch indicates, the model favors the lines of the coat dress and make for slenderness, the effect in the back and at the sides being entirely flat, a favorite device this season. The waistline is finished with a fold of self-material, intertwined with the gold galloon.

POST SEASON GAME BEING AGITATED

A proposal of a post-season football game between Central High of this city and either London, Sidney or Wilmington, but if possible with the first named, for Thanksgiving Day, is being projected by local players and fans.

The showing made by the "big blue" machine against Greenfield Friday convinced both players and fans that they can walloper the Madison County eleven and the fact that the locals did not show their real strength in the London game, makes the players anxious to retrieve the contest by a second meeting. A game with London, it is said, would be more popular than with Wilmington, an old rival which will not meet this season, or with Sidney, the team that handed Xenia its lone defeat.

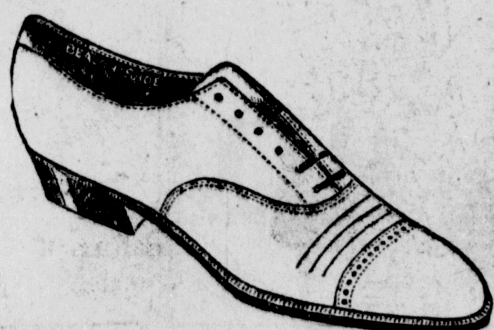

In the past Thanksgiving Day met an annual clash between the Varsity and Alumni. These games were exceedingly popular but have been dropped from the high school schedule for the last several years. Fans believe a Turkey Day combat with London would prove to be the biggest game of the year and are agitating an attempt to arrange for such a contest.

Syrup Pepsin Loved By Hosts of Babies

Half a teaspoonful will make a fretful youngster happy and playful

THE mother has her choice of many remedies for her baby's minor ills, but she should be careful which remedy she selects lest she do the child harm. What might be safe for herself may do injury to an infant. You will find that if the little one cries and doesn't want to play that its bowels are constipated. First look carefully to the diet and give the child one-half teaspoonful of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. You will then see results in a few hours. You will not have to force it on babies or children; they actually ask for it, it is so pleasant-tasting and free from griping.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a compound of Egyptian senna and pepsin with agreeable aromatics. The ingredients are stated on the package. It is a mild, gentle vegetable laxative that everyone finds effective and pleasant. It is better for you and yours than purgatives, coal-tar drugs, or salt

ANY FAMILY MAY TRY IT FREE

Why Americans are losing height!

Prof. Osborn, President of Natural History Museum of New York, and our greatest geologist tells us that Americans have lost 2 1/2 inches in height since Civil War. Why? It is mainly a matter of feeding. We don't get enough of what the body really needs. Take for instance, the one food element, vitamin B. Scientists have shown that animals are starved if they are deprived of this single element. As essential as vitamin B, it is for there is no vitamin B in cane sugar, candy, corn syrup, lard, butter, fine flour, rice, corn meal; almost none in meat and many popular breakfast foods, and not enough in milk.

"ZEP" is Rich in Vitamin B. "ZEP" is so rich in vitamin B that a thimbleful fed a scurvy animal cured it over night. "ZEP" is not only nourishing, but tasty. Crisp, toasted, ready to serve.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel. Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them. 15c and 30c.

FOURTEEN INDICTED IN FEDERAL COURT IN WHISKEY CONSPIRACY

Fourteen men were indicted by the Federal Grand Jury in Federal Court Monday in connection with the theft of grain alcohol valued at $204,000, in a case that is believed to rival in magnitude the famous Remus conspiracy case in Cincinnati.

Included in the 14 men against whom true bills were returned are Charles S. Wessel and Anthony Cyronise, arrested here by local authorities some time ago, and turned over to federal authorities when they were found to have a quantity of gin, said to have been prepared by the Consolidated Drug Company of Columbus, and to have been destined for local consumption. The men were arrested when they arrived in Xenia with the liquor in a truck, and six cases of gin each containing 12 quart bottles labelled with the fictitious name of a company operating in London and Glasgow, were confiscated.

The men were turned over to federal authorities from Dayton, who had already been working on the alleged whiskey ring. Others indicted by Federal Grand Jury are Cecil H. Kearns, Zebnor C. Rose, Alexander M. Mason, Tony Sodd, Nathan J. Bornstein, W. Earl Tallheim, John C. Price, his brother, Frank Price, Chester A. Browning, C. L. Gray, J. S. Barton and Doe Green.

History of the alcohol ring shows that the alleged theft was committed at Hermitage, Tenn., early last January. Rose, Browning, Green and the Price brothers were arrested in Dayton several months ago and 75 barrels of alcohol recovered. In all, 24,000 gallons of pure grain alcohol were said to have been stolen from the government warehouse known as Old Hickory Powder plant at Hermitage. In excess of 100,000 gallons were stored at the warehouse at the time.

The indictments say these 24,000 gallons were shipped to Dayton, Chicago, Covington, Ky., Cleveland, Wheeling, W. Va., and from Dayton to Columbus and from Columbus to Xenia. It is charged that on January 20, 1921, Kearns, doing business as the Southern Denatured Alcohol Company purchased from the Nashville Industrial Corporation, 100 barrels containing 5,000 gallons of alcohol, which was to have been denatured before being shipped. On this same day, Kearns, Tallheim, Mason and Wessel delivered 100 barrels of alcohol marked "denatured" to the Tennessee Central Railway Company for shipment to points north. Sodd, an employee of the Nashville Industrial Corporation, original owner of the alcohol, had as his duties in this capacity, denaturing the alcohol. In the indictment he is charged with destroying the denaturing fluid and permitting the alcohol to leave the warehouse in its original form.

Gray was the storekeeper, gauger and official representative of the internal revenue department, who was supposed to be present at the time the alcohol was denatured, and was certified to the government it had been denatured before it was shipped. Ninety barrels of this alcohol reached Dayton, February 7, and was placed in storage by Zeb Rose and Kearns. Rose and Kearns are charged with shipping two barrels to Columbus February 22, at about the time revenue agents arrived in Dayton in search of the alcohol.

Rose and Kearns then removed the entire amount stored in the warehouse to the farm of Browning at Moraine City, where it was hidden. John Price and Green are said to have assisted in this removal. Two more barrels were found in John Price's home, when he was arrested. Wessel and Cyronise are charged with transporting gin, alleged to have been manufactured out of the alcohol, from Columbus to Xenia, where it was to have been sold, when the two were arrested here. Kearns, Wessel and Mason are charged with causing two barrels to be shipped to the Continental Drug Company, South High Street, Columbus.

Several of the defendants have already been arrested and are at liberty under bond, while others have not yet been taken into custody. Capases will be issued for their arrests and they will be brought into court within a day or two, it is said.

Styles BY LENORE

Here is another interesting model in which gold trimming plays an important part in giving life and attractiveness to a brown dress. It is a model imported from Paton Brown kasha cloth is used, and you who are perhaps conservative may not like this, but the sleeves are made of white organdie, banded with gold galleon. The effect is extremely original, and pleasingly so. Of course Georgette may be substituted.

As the sketch indicates, the model favors the lines of the coat dress and make for slenderness, the effect in the back and at the sides being entirely flat, a favorite device this season. The waistline is finished with a fold of self-material, interwined with the gold galleon.

DEPUTY COLLECTOR IS TRANSFERRED TO DAYTON

Alfred M. Ogan, deputy internal revenue collector for Greene County, will be transferred to the district office at Dayton, effective Wednesday, according to changes announced here Monday.

Al Wuest, chief field deputy out of the office of Collector at Cincinnati, made arrangements for the change in a visit here yesterday. Under the new plan, Clinton County which has been under the supervision of Mr. Ogan is transferred into the Cincinnati district and Greene and

POST SEASON GAME BEING AGITATED

A proposal of a post-season football game between Central High of this city and either London, Sidney or Wilmington, but if possible with the first named, for Thanksgiving Day, is being projected by local players and fans.

The showing made by the "big blue" machine against Greenfield Friday convinced both players and fans that they can wallopp the Madison County eleven and the fact that the locals did not show their real strength in the London game, makes the players anxious to retrieve the contest by a second meeting. A game with London, it is said, would be more popular than with Wilmington, an old rival which will not be met this season, or with Sidney, the team that handed Xenia its lone defeat.

In the past Thanksgiving Day met an annual clash between the Varsity and Alumni. These games were exceedingly popular but have been dropped from the high school schedule for the last several years. Fans believe a Turkey Day combat with London would prove to be the biggest game of the year and are agitating an attempt to arrange for such a contest.

Syrup Pepsin Loved By Hosts of Babies

Half a teaspoonful will make a fretful youngster happy and playful

THE mother has her choice of many remedies for her baby's minor ills, but she should be careful which remedy she selects lest she do the child harm. What might be safe for herself may do injury to an infant.

You will find that if the little one cries and doesn't want to play that its bowels are constipated. First look carefully to the diet and give the child one-half teaspoonful of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. You will then see results in a few hours. You will not have to force it on babies or children; they actually ask for it, it is so pleasant-tasting and free from gripping.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a compound of Egyptian senna and pepsin with agreeable aromatics. The ingredients are stated on the package. It is a mild, gentle vegetable laxative that everyone finds effective and pleasant. It is better for you and yours than purgatives, coal-tar drugs, or salt

ANY FAMILY MAY TRY IT FREE

Thousands of parents are asking themselves, "Where can I find a trustworthy laxative that anyone in the family can use when constipated?" I urge you to try Syrup Pepsin. I will gladly provide a liberal free sample bottle, sufficient for an adequate test. Write me where to send it. Address Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 515 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois. Do it now!

waters and powders, which may concentrate the blood and dry up the skin; or mercurial calomel, which may salivate and loosen the teeth.

Use a safe laxative like Syrup Pepsin, and especially for the children, for invalids, growing girls, nursing mothers, elderly people, and persons recently operated upon who need bowel action with the least strain. Mrs. Lillian Brenington of Woodruff, S. C., always gives her children Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and Mrs. A. E. Blondin of Muskegon, Mich., will not have any other laxative in her home. Your druggist will supply you, and it only costs a cent a dose. Try it in constipation, colic, biliousness, flatulency, headaches, and to break up fevers and colds.

Why Americans are losing height!

Prof. Osborn, President of Natural History, Museum of New York, and our greatest scientist tells us that Americans have lost 2 1/2 inches in height since 1880. It is mainly a matter of feeding. We don't get enough of what the body really needs. Take for instance, the one food element, vitamin B. Scientists have shown that animals are stunted if deprived of this single element. As essential as is vitamin B, the average breakfast is almost wholly lacking in it—for there is no vitamin B in cane sugar, candy, corn syrup, lard, butter, fine flour, rice, corn meal, almost none in meat and many popular breakfast foods, and not enough in milk.

"ZEP" is Rich in Vitamin B. "ZEP" is so rich in vitamin B that a thimbleful fed a starved animal cured it over night. "ZEP" is not only nourishing, but tasty. Crisp, toasted, ready to serve.

Look for "ZEP" in your grocery—for "ZEP" and Sanitarious Cooked Bran—the original Battle Creek Bran. It is the most lines fine with "ZEP". Look for the yellow package with red seals.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them. 15c and 30c.

CHILDREN'S WORK
ENGAGES ATTENTION OF LEAGUE NURSE

Work among the children of the Xenia City Schools, examining them for defects and cooperating with the parent-teacher Association and school authorities, in connection with the malnutrition program in vogue in the schools, has comprised a large part of the time and work of Mrs. Margaret Kelley, Social Service League Public Health Nurse, as given in her report for the month of October at the meeting of the League Executive Board, Monday evening, at the City Hall.

Mrs. Kelley was requested by Superintendent of City Schools C. A. Wertz to take charge of the first three grades of the schools and a great deal of her time during the past month was devoted to this work, as shown by the report. Prof. Taylor of Lincoln School also enlisted the aid of the nurse, regarding the physical condition of the pupils of that school. Mrs. Kelley during the past month gave talks before the Mothers' Circle of Central High School, and examined 40 school children at McKinley School, who were weighed and measured with charts for each child.

Mrs. Kelley had 98 cases under care during the past month, according to her report, 32 being dismissed by the end of the month, 66 remaining. Five patients were taken to the hospital at Dayton, and one to the Springfield Tubercular Hospital. The record of the number of visits made totals 182, nursing visits 122, and business and friendly visits 30.

Mrs. Kelley during the month assisted Miss Natalie Merrill in the pathological work over the county, and spent a day at the clinic held by the Greene County Medical Society at the Elks club.

One of the most important phases of Mrs. Kelley's work was that of the weekly baby clinic, conducted under the auspices of the Kiwanis Club, every Thursday at the Social Service League Headquarters. Thirty three babies have been treated at the clinic since its inauguration. Several mothers, according to Mrs. Kelley, have brought their babies to the clinic regarding their general health conditions and for advice. A vote of thanks by the League Executive Board to the Kiwanis Club in appreciation for the clinic, was suggested at the meeting Monday night by Mrs. Kelley.

The reports of Mrs. Kelley, submitted to the Executive Board, included a notation of the fact that Mr. Stoner had given free transportation to Dayton for the nurse and patients, when needed; and that Dr. Pavay extracted two teeth for one child, without charge.

Miss Charlie Santmyer reported before the Executive Board that the McGervey Sunday School Class of Trinity M. E. Church, had made plans to clothe the little needy girls of the city, that they have two representatives at each meeting of the League Board, who do personal Christian work among the poor of the city. Other regular business was transacted by the members of the Executive Board, during the meeting. Miss Bertha Trebein, who with Mrs. Carrie J. Robertson, was a delegate from the League to the convention of the Ohio Welfare Board, gave a report of the session before the members of the Board.

Mrs. Robertson, executive secretary of the League, did not submit a report at the meeting.

The following report of F. F. Keyes, treasurer of the League, was submitted at the meeting Monday:

CHILDREN'S WORK ENGAGES ATTENTION OF LEAGUE NURSE

Work among the children of the Xenia City Schools, examining them for defects and cooperating with the Parent-Teacher Association and school authorities, in connection with the malnutrition program in vogue in the schools, has comprised a large part of the time and work of Mrs. Margaret Kelley, Social Service League Public Health Nurse, as given in her report for the month of October at the meeting of the League Executive Board, Monday evening, at the City Hall.

Mrs. Kelley was requested by Superintendent of City Schools C. A. Waitz to take charge of the first three grades of the schools and a great deal of her time during the past month was devoted to this work, as shown by the report. Prof. Taylor of Lincoln School also enlisted the aid of the nurse, regarding the physical condition of the pupils of that school. Mrs. Kelley during the past month gave talks before the Mothers' Circle of Central High School, and examined 40 school children at McKinley School, who were weighed and measured with charts for each child.

Mrs. Kelley had 98 cases under care during the past month, according to her report, 32 being dismissed by the end of the month, 66 remaining. Five patients were taken to the hospital at Dayton, and one to the Springfield Tubercular Hospital. The record of the number of visits made totals 182, school children visits numbering 40, nursing visits 122, and business and friendly visits 20.

Mrs. Kelley during the month assisted Miss Natalie Merrill in the pathological work over the county, and spent a day at the clinic held by the Greene County Medical Society at the Elks club.

One of the most important phases of Mrs. Kelley's work was that of the weekly baby clinic, conducted under the auspices of the Kiwanis Club, every Thursday at the Social Service League Headquarters. Thirty three babies have been treated at the clinic since its inauguration. Several mothers, according to Mrs. Kelley, have brought their babies to the clinic regarding their general health conditions and for advice. A vote of thanks by the League Executive Board to the Kiwanis Club in appreciation for the clinic, was suggested at the meeting Monday night by Mrs. Kelley.

The reports of Mrs. Kelley, submitted to the Executive Board, included a notation of the fact that Mr. Stoner had given free transportation to Dayton for the nurse and patients, when needed; and that Dr. Pavay extracted two teeth for one child, without charge.

Miss Charlie Santmyer reported before the Executive Board that the McGervey Sunday School Class of Trinity M. E. Church, had made plans to clothe two little needy girls of the city, that they have two representatives at each meeting of the League Board, who do personal Christian work among the poor of the city. Other regular business was transacted by the members of the Executive Board, during the meeting. Miss Bertha Trebein, who with Mrs. Carrie J. Robertson, was a delegate from the League to the convention of the Ohio Welfare Board, gave a report of the session before the members of the Board.

Mrs. Robertson, executive secretary of the League, did not submit a report at the meeting.

The following report of F. F. Keyes, treasurer of the League, was submitted at the meeting Monday:

Daughter Gives Fortune to Father's Workers.

George Cadbury

When George Cadbury, J. P., chairman of Cadbury Brothers Ltd., a famous English business firm died, recently he left his fortune of $1,000,000 to his daughter, Mrs. Beatrice Boeke, of Birmingham Eng., who immediately made it over to her father's employees at Bourneville the model village he had founded. It is the intention of the council formed to handle the fund to see that neither Mrs. Boeke nor her children shall ever be in want.

RECOVERS FROM RHEUMATISM

"Had rheumatism five months that would go from my left knee to my back. Tried many remedies without relief. Finally used Foley Kidney Pills and in fifteen days was entirely cured," writes W. J. Oliver, Vidalia, Georgia. Backache, rheumatic pains, dull headache, dizziness and blurred vision are symptoms of kidney disorder. Foley Kidney Pills quickly relieve kidney and bladder trouble. ## HEADS OF MILLION DOLLAR CONSPIRACY ALL PLEAD GUILTY

Cleveland, Nov. 14.—Louis and Morris Auerbach, brothers, indicted as heads of an alleged million dollar alcohol conspiracy, and three others indicted jointly with them, entered pleas of guilty in federal court, here today. Steps to impanel a jury to hear the evidence, in what is alleged by the government to be one of the greatest conspiracies to evade the dry law has already been taken.

Judge D. C. West

HEADS OF MILLION ROTARIANS SHOWN DOLLAR CONSPIRACY ACTUAL RESULTS OF ALL PLEAD GUILTY WORK BEING DONE

Cleveland, Nov. 14.--Louis and Morris Auerbach, brothers, indicted as heads of an alleged million dollar alcohol conspiracy, and three others indicted jointly with them, entered pleas of guilty in federal court here today. Steps to impanel a jury to hear the evidence, in what is alleged by the government to be one of the greatest conspiracies to evade the dry law has already been taken. Judge D. C. Westonhausen, sitting in the case, reserved sentence.

The Auerbachs, as the owners of the Million Dollar Hair Tonic Company are said to have diverted alcohol obtained on permits to manufacture their tonic to bootleg channels.

First hand information on what had been accomplished by their committee in charge of the work, was given the members of the Xenia Rotary Club, at the meeting held at the Elks Club Tuesday, when three crippled children were brought to the session by Dr. R. Kent Finley, chairman of the Crippled Children's Committee, and Dr. James Walker, orthopedic surgeon of Dayton, who has aided in the work of the local club. The children were brought to the meeting for the purpose of illustrating to the club members the course of treatment given the crippled children found over the county, paid for by the club, one of the children having been cured of his trouble, while the other two were in the course of correction.

Dr. Walker gave a talk before the members of the club explaining the work in which he was assisted by Dr. Finley and his club committee. Miss Evers, Red Cross public health nurse, was present at the meeting, and told of the survey conducted over the county, in which she assisted and in which 34 crippled children were found in the county. Many of these children are now being cared for by funds supplied by the Rotary Club, while others are incurable, Miss Evers explained.

Mrs. Margaret Kelley, Social Service League Public Health Nurse, was also present at the meeting. The Social Service League, is also cooperating with Dr. Finley and his committee in the crippled children work in the county.

What Fire Chief Claire termed a "real fire hazard" existed at the second hand store and blacksmith shop of Amos Gwinn, 835 East Church Street, where fire broke out shortly after five o'clock Monday evening.

The walls and ceilings of the place were covered with heavy wrapping paper, which caught when a gasoline stove in a rear room was lit and the flames shot ceilingward. From the paper the blaze was conveyed to rags and rubbish in the attic.

Firemen extinguished the conflagration with chemicals, and the loss will be small. Tuesday Fire Chief Claire ordered Gwinn to remove all of the paper from the walls and ceilings and do away with rubbish which creates a constant hazard.

Ambrose A. Tracey, 65, died unexpectedly Monday afternoon at the home of his brother, James A. Tracey, Marshall road, R. R. No. 2, Beavertown. Surviving are four brothers and two sisters. Funeral services will be held Wednesday morning at nine o'clock at the Union Church at Byron. Burial will be made in the church cemetery.

Mr. Tracey, who was widely known as a member of the Odd Fellows Lodge of Xenia, for twenty years.

Steamship RUSHES TO CRIPPLED SHIP

Boston, Nov. 14.--The steamship Pittsburgh is rushing to the assistance of the Italian steamer Monte Grappe, which during the night sent out wireless S O S calls, according to advice reaching the Charleston navy yard today.

The Monte Grappe is believed in marine circles here to be the grain freighter of that name which sailed from Montreal Nov. 4, bound for Venice.

She registers 4661 gross tons and is commanded by Captain Bartolli.

Simple Treatment Clears Skin quickly of All Unpleasant Eruptions

For several weeks past local druggists have done a big business and made lots of friends simply by recommending and selling Hokara--a skin healer that has miraculously aided many people in restoring to them a clear, natural, healthy skin.

Hokara by its antiseptic healing qualities has been found to correct quickly all minor skin troubles such as pimples, blackheads, herpes, acne, scaly scalp, complexion blemishes, itching feet and hands, itchy sores, salt rheum, and even chronic eczema respond readily. There has yet to be found any form of skin disease that Hokara does not greatly help, and it's

GAME REFUGE IS ESTABLISHED HERE HUNTERS INFORMED

A game and bird refuge has been established in Greene County by the State Fish and Game Department, according to announcement made Tuesday by Karl Keller, Greene County Game Protector.

The refuge, which contains about 1,000 acres, has been established in the northeast corner of Spring Valley Township, and Caesarscreek flows through the center of the district set aside.

The purpose of the refuge is to provide a haven of refuge into which game and wild birds of all kinds may retreat and be protected from hunters at all times, in the hope that the increase of these creatures obtained through absolute protection will result in an overflow into the surrounding territory where the game may be taken under the provisions of the existing law.

No one will be permitted to go upon the lands within the confines of this enclosure with either a gun or dog, and a penalty of from $25 to $200 fine is provided to enforce the law on this point. Game officials believe the preserve will mean an increase in game in this part of the state and they ask that hunters and others cooperate with them in an attempt to secure the desired result by respecting the laws and reporting any violations that come to their notice.

The boundaries of the refuge are well posted, so that hunters trespassing within the enclosure, will have no excuse for such a violation, according to Keller, and offenders will be strictly prosecuted under the terms of the law. People, who will help to make the first refuge ever established in the county a success, will help greatly by reporting violations to Mr. Keller.

COURT NEWS

Old Title Is Under Fire

That the Odd Fellows Lodge of Cedarville is occupying a building in that village which is presumably owned by which it has never really paid for is the charge made in a suit filed in Common Pleas Court Monday.

The petition brings up a 26-year old purchase agreement, a $50 note and a mortgage that it claims was never satisfied in its claim to have the property remanded to the original owner and the mortgage foreclosed.

Mrs. B. Ervin and Belle M. Ervin, are plaintiffs in the action which names as defendants Dan Smith and George Parker. The trustees of Cedarville Lodge, No. 1914, Grand United Order of Odd Fellows and H. and R. No. 415.

The plaintiff, Mary B. Ervin, claims she is the owner, subject to the life estate of Belle M. Ervin, of the Cedarville property, which she claims is part of the estate of D. S. Ervin. The petition avers that the property was sold by D. S. Ervin, May 20, 1896 to the trustees of the Odd Fellows and to H. and R. No. 415 and that the trustees executed a note to D. S. Ervin for $50, secured by a mortgage on the property. The plaintiffs allege the lodge has never paid the purchase price, that the mortgage was never satisfied and that the defendants never obtained possession. The petition asks that the defendants be compelled to set forth their interest, that the claim of the defendants be adjudged null and void and that the plaintiffs title be quieted against the claims of the defendants. L. T. Marshall is attorney for the plaintiff.

Probate Kelble Will

The seven daughters of Catherine Kelble, are named beneficiaries under the terms of her will, admitted to probate by Judge Marshall. They are Rosa Kelble, Amelia Barnes, Catherine Schleicher, Josie Schunklin, Mary Huffman, Anne Mendenhall and Carrie Hawes. Each is to select what she wants from the household goods, and the rest is to be sold and divided among them. All the rest is to be divided among all seven daughters also. August Schleicher was named executor and furnished $2,000 bond.

Wife Seeks Divorce

Charging gross neglect of duty Myrtle Morrow is plaintiff in a divorce action brought in Common Pleas Court against Ralph Morrow. She wants temporary alimony and expense allowance, divorce, final al-

Then I Began Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Medicines

Donaldsonville, La.—"I write with pleasure to praise your medicine—Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound—which has done so much to restore my health. I was a broken-down woman until my husband brought me a bottle of your Vegetable Compound and one of Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicines. I had been having pains every month and at intervals between, was weak and seemed to be smothering at times, but in a week I felt like another woman. I also used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. It did me a lot of good too. I cannot praise your medicines too much and will be more than glad to recommend them to any woman who is suffering from female troubles. You may print my testimonial, as it is true."—Mrs. T. A. LANDRY, 612 Miss. St., Donaldsonville, La.

Note Mrs. Landry's words—"as it is true." Every letter recommending Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is genuine. It is a statement telling the merits of these medicines just as the women in your own neighborhood tell each other about them. For fifty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has sold on merit.

Auto Damaged—Wants Judgment

Thad Miller, of Cedarville, charged Dight C. Bare of St. Paris with negligence in the operation of his automobile in his suit for damages in the sum of $158.75 with six per cent interest from October 1, 1921, filed in Common Pleas Court.

The plaintiff claims he was driving south on the Urbana pike between Springfield and Urbana, in his Overland Sedan, September 29, 1921 and that the defendant driving northwardly, was negligent being on the wrong side of the road, was traveling at an unlawful rate of speed of 40 miles an hour and did not dim his lights, which blinded the plaintiff. The defendant was driving a Ford truck and in the collision the plaintiff alleges his automobile was damaged, in the sum of $108.75. For having the car hauled to a garage he asks another $50. Thomas D. Hodges of Springfield is attorney for the plaintiff.

Mullen Will Probated

The will of Albert C. Mullen, admitted to probate by Judge J. Carl Marshall, leaves all the estate to the testator's wife, Hannah Mullen. At her death, $1,500 is to be given to his daughter, Jennie Mullen, if she is then unmarried, and all other property to his daughter, Edna Mullen. L. M. Henderson was named executor without bond and Lester Hendrick, Rolla Bolton and Frank Wright appointed appraisers.

Mrs. W. W. D.—"Can you tell me what will take out a stain caused from uncooked fish? Coming home from town one day I left a parcel containing fish in the baby's carriage. It got on the baby's embroidered dress and when I got home I put the dress right into boiling water but could not get the stain out."

Answer:—A fish stain is such an unusual one, that I have no recipe for removing it. So I am publishing your query in the hope that some Reader Friend who has happened to have experience in removing such a stain, will drop me a postal giving me some hint that will help you, so that I can publish it here.

A Pupil:—"You may think it rather early, but I am writing for advice in making my Christmas presents! What would be an appropriate gift for a dear teacher and also for a dear friend? Please also tell me from what material a combing jacket is best made."

Answer:—"Don't ever fear that I would think one of my readers 'too early' in requesting information concerning some definite event. The trouble with most readers is, that they wait till the very last minute before an event—and then write me in such desperate haste that it is often hard for me to get an answer to them in time. I think your teacher and your friend would both appreciate something made by your hands—such as a bourdior cap, or one of the dainty pink or blue satin pin cushions covered just on the top with a mat of embroidered white linen, or crocheted linen thread (these pin cushions are very popular just now). For the combing jacket, use either silk crepe, or cotton crepe pressed with an iron. Bind the jacket with satin ribbon in the same delicate color of which it is made.

S. H.—"Kindly advise me concerning the best way to keep linens and laces for a period of six months without using, so that they will not discolor. Also, does good lace tear from being laid away?"

Answer:—"Wrap the linens and laces in blue tissue paper and lay them away in a chest so that light does not strike them. The blue paper keeps them from becoming yellow. Good lace does not tear from being laid away. But for a period longer than six months it is not wise to lay away any linens or cottons which have been starched. Instead, 'rough dry' the pieces (that is wash them without soap and sun them well to dry) and lay them away in the blue paper just as they are. When you wish to use them you can blue, starch and iron them. In this way, no chemicals in starch or blueing can decay the fibres.

MRS. PAGE SUGGESTS A VISIT TO THE STUDIO.

Chapter 26

I did not see Helen Ralstrom for nearly a week after our meeting at the roadhouse. I had not been to the studio, felt I did not care to go. I hated to see her alone with Walter, to meet her eyes turned on me in dislike, to watch her appropriation of my husband.

Mrs. Page spoke to me of it. "Why don't you go to Walter's studio oftener, Doreen?" she asked. "Oh, I am only in the way! Artists don't care to be interrupted often." I replied wondering why she had suggested it.

"As long as that Ralstrom girl is his model I think it wise you should drop in occasionally. Walter is my son, and a good one, a good man. But he is a man, and the best of them are often weak at times, especially when exposed to the wiles of a woman like her. I shall be glad when Walter finishes working with her."

"I am afraid that will not be for some time. He is talking of posing her for another picture when this is finished," I replied. "He says she is one of the best, if not the best model he ever had."

"Um—" Mrs. Page looked annoyed. But made no further remark.

Why had she spoken as she did? Was she too afraid Helen Ralstrom would wean Walter from me? Would make a scandal? That, to one of her proud nature, would be unbearable. I did not then flatter myself that she had spoken out of consideration for me.

That afternoon I went out to do an errand, and dropped into the studio. I purposely called at the time I knew Walter stopped work to have tea, so that he couldn't say I disturbed him. "I've come for tea!" I said, as I opened the door in response to his call to "come in."

"Just a minute, Doreen, don't move. Helen! That expression is what I have been trying to get all day." He worked quickly, surely. I watched him, almost forgetting Helen. He was so alert, so full of life, and so handsome. No wonder I loved him I thought.

"There! Now we'll stop for a while," he threw down his brushes.

"I'll make the tea," I said, then: "how-de-do, Helen. Has this boy of mine been tiring you?"

I saw her squirm at my speech. "Walter is always thoughtful of me," she replied, the venom in her voice reflecting that in her eyes.

"He is of everyone!" I replied. He had left the room for a moment, and I added maliciously: "even of his mother's dog."

A red flush spread over her face but she scored when she returned: "From what he tells me that is more than you are!"

"I never liked dogs, was born I think, with a fear of them."

"How silly. So you believe in heredity?"

"In some things—yes. I also believe that good blood tells—that it gives poise, and so on."

"What are you two discussing so seriously?" Walter asked as he came into the studio again.

"Dogs, heredity, poise and other things," I replied before Helen could speak.

"A regular hash!" he laughed. "Give me my tea Doreen. I want to work another hour before the light goes. That is if you aren't too tired, Helen."

"I am rather tired," she drawled. "But if you will take me home in the car I won't mind. But after I have posed extra time, it is too exhausting to ride home in the subway, perhaps hanging on to a strap."

"Of course I'll take you home."

That's little enough for an extra hour."

He picked up his brushes.

"I'll stay and read, then ride up to Helen's with you," I said, as I wheeled the tea wagon aside. We often rode three in the runabout for short distances, although it was not comfortable for long rides.

I was looking at Helen as I spoke and a look of baffled rage spread over her face, then looking straight at me, she said in her most honeyed tones: "That will be delightful! Walter will be pleased to have company back. He is such a sociable soul."

"Ready!" Walter exclaimed a bit impatiently. And no one spoke again, save when he gave Helen some directions, until the hour was up.

"Um—" Mrs. Page looked annoyed. But made no further remark.

Why had she spoken as she did? Was she too afraid Helen Ralstrom would wean Walter from me? Would make a scandal? That, to one of her proud nature, would be unbearable. I did not then flatter myself that she had spoken out of consideration for me.

That afternoon I went out to do an errand, and dropped into the studio. I purposely called at the time I knew Walter stopped work to have tea, so that he couldn't say I disturbed him.

"I've come for tea!" I said, as I opened the door in response to his call to "come in."

"Just a minute, Doreen, don't move, Helen! That expression is what I have been trying to get all day." He worked quickly, surely. I watched him, almost forgetting Helen. He was so alert, so full of life, and so handsome. No wonder I loved him I thought.

"There! Now we'll stop for a while," he threw down his brushes. "I'll make the tea," I said, then: "how-do-do, Helen. Has this boy of mine been tiring you?"

I saw her squirm at my speech. "Walter is always thoughtful of me," she replied, the venom in her voice reflecting that in her eyes.

"He is of everyone!" I replied. He had left the room for a moment, and I added maliciously: "even of his mother's dog."

A red flush spread over her face but she scored when she returned: "From what he tells me that is more than you are!"

"I never liked dogs, was born I think, with a fear of them."

"How silly. So you believe in heredity?"

"In some things—yes, I also believe that good blood tells—that it gives poise, and so on."

"What are you two discussing so seriously?" Walter asked as he came into the studio again.

"Dogs, heredity, poise and other things," I replied before Helen could speak.

"A regular hash!" he laughed. "Give me my tea Doreen, I want to work another hour before the light goes. That is if you aren't too tired, Helen."

"I am rather tired," she drawled. "But if you will take me home in the car I won't mind. But after I have posed extra time, it is too exhausting to ride home in the subway, perhaps hanging on to a strap."

"Of course I'll take you home."

That's little enough for an extra hour."

He picked up his brushes. "I'll stay and read, then ride up to Helen's with you," I said, as I wheeled the tea wagon aside. We often rode three in the runabout for short distances, although it was not comfortable for long rides.

I was looking at Helen as I spoke and a look of baffled rage spread over her face, then looking straight at me, she said in her most honeyed tones: "That will be delightful! Walter will be pleased to have company back. He is such a sociable soul."

"Ready!" Walter exclaimed a bit impatiently. And no one spoke again, save when he gave Helen some directions, until the hour was up.
